Central Europe. A region of castles, waterfalls, vineyards, mountains, and festivals

The German federal state of Baden-Württemberg is a wonderful land, which is chosen for holidays by those who like romance, interesting tours, vivid impressions, nature, and haute cuisine. This is where you can combine holidays in the open air and truly unforgettable tours around the land filled with medieval history and European culture. (World famous sights: Hohenzollern, Sigmaringen castles, Triberg and Rheinfall waterfalls).

Alsace is a land in eastern France, one of the smallest by area and one of the most beautiful. It is famous for many sights in Strasbourg and Colmar, the Wine Road and the Maginot Line.

Switzerland: apart from beautiful nature, the region is famous for its long history, great opportunities for outdoor activities. The most famous places are the Rheinfall waterfall, which is the biggest in Europe, Rapperswill castles (Swiss Riviera), medieval Ancient Zurich, Alpamare water park, and Atzmännig ski resort.

Central Europe. A region of castles, waterfalls, vineyards, mountains, and festivals

Vorarlberg is in the western part of Austria on the Bodensee. Besides the magnificent nature, it is famous in Europe for its musical festivals on the water. It is also known for its rich armoury museum and palaces of the Princes of Thurn und Taxis.

Liechtenstein offers the most beautiful natural landscapes, lots of greenery and the famous Gutenberg and Vaduz castles. The latter is the current residence of the Prince of Liechtenstein.

Lindau is a beautiful resort island on the Bodensee with a long history of the Roman Empire times. The ancient city is rich with medieval German architecture. The Lindau yacht club is an organizer of “Around the Bodensee” regatta. German Deutschland Tour cycle races and international athletics competitions are held here.

Moscow. The city of palaces, museums, theatres, and monasteries

One of the most famous cities in the world, the capital of Russia, a treasury of Russian culture and historical values is waiting for you

Moscow is a multinational city, where people of different cultures and confessions have coexisted peacefully at all times.

The city treasures the heritage of the past, being also a modern metropolis, a large international business and financial centre.

Moscow offers a variety of options for children and educational tourism. Guests of Moscow have all opportunities not only to have fun, but also to learn many useful and fascinating things.

- More than 290 museums and exhibition halls at your disposal,
- 116 parks,
- 118 special protected natural reservations,
- 64 landmarks of palatial and landscape architecture, 2 botanic gardens and a zoo.

World famous sites: Red Square, GUM Department Store, Kremlin, Armoury Chamber, Moscow Metro, Okhotny Ryad Shopping Centre, Bolshoi Theater, Ostankino TV Tower, Cathedral of Christ the Saviour, Arbat, Tretyakov Art Gallery and Novodevichy Convent.

Moscow is changing all the time. Bolshoi Theater and Moscow Planetarium are reopened after renovation. The Palace of the Tsar Alexey Mikhailovich in Kolomenskoye has been restored; the residence of Russian Ded Moroz, Santa Claus in Kuzminki offers meeting with a fairy tale throughout the year; the Cold War Museum located at 65 m below ground surface has been opened.
